

An illustration for a Sleeping Beauty ballet poster. It depicts a woman with long brown hair sleeping in a bed with a pink and white striped dress. A prince in a red tunic stands by the window, looking at her. A large dragon is on the left, and a lion is on the right. A spinning wheel with a spiderweb is in the foreground. The scene is set in a room with blue and purple curtains and a window with a view of greenery.

HAMILTON
CITY
ballet

is proud to present

Sleeping Beauty

Music by Peter Ilyich Tchaikovsky
Choreography by Marius Petipa Staged by Max Ratevosian & Melania Pawliw

with the participation of students from Hamilton City Ballet and Hamilton Academy of Performing Arts

JUNE 9 & 10, 2011 at 7 PM

The Scottish Rite Club of Hamilton
4 Queen Street South, Hamilton

Tickets: $20

Tickets may be purchased at 108 Park St. W. Dundas ~ 289-238-9855 or at the theatre box office one hour before each performance